

Course Duration

Course Duration Save and Aid training programs last between 4 – 10 hours, depending on the course content, audience, previous experience with the materials, etc. Classes can be conducted as all-day sessions, or divided into multiple segments meeting on different days. For details on a specific program at your facility, contact us to set up a training schedule.